GREETINGS FROM THE PRES,

August 17th Sewing Day - Ya'll Come!!!!!!!!!!!!

Please come to the Sewing Day at Redeemer Lutheran Church, Saturday August 17th from 9:30 am to 3 pm. This will be a fun day to meet with fellow members and see their sewing projects. I encourage new members to come and get better acquainted. Bring your sewing machine and supplies and a project OR you can bring some hand sewing project if you like. We will also be having lunch together. The Guild will provide drink, paper goods, lots of lettuce and some salad dressing. Please bring something to add to the salad like tomatoes, green peppers, cheese, sunflower seeds, something like that. Use your imagination OR you could bring some cookies or chocolate for later. Please let me know if you are coming so I can get plenty of lettuce and drink made. Call Janda Allred at 785 825-6494 or e-mail me at jandalu@cox.net by Friday, August 16th. (p.s. We will have 2 cutting boards, some heavy electrical extension cords and 3 ironing boards and irons for your use, but you might throw in a power strip if you have one.)

Juli-Ann Gasper Textile Artist Workshop

The week long workshop with Juli Ann Gasper was deemed a success. Thirteen young people participated and ranged from age 9 to 18, both girls and boys. The young people were very enthused about the textile art project method of layering and cutting away fabric. There was a nice article in the Salina Journal with pictures. The event would not have been successful without our help. A big round of applause and thanks go out to the members that participated: Mary Ann Tanking, Toni Armstrong, Debbie Divine, Cindy Grover, Shawn Delker, Marilyn Hunt, Linda Hinnenkamp, Roz Gugler and Kathyne Perney and Janda Allred. These women gave of their time, their expertise and the use of their sewing machines. Ladies, by doing this project we have stimulated interest in quilting in our community which is key in our mission statement. KUDOS!!!!!!!!!!!!
