DON'T FORGET: We will not be having a meeting in December and no newsletter will be sent.

The Silver Needles Board wishes everyone a Happy Thanksgiving on Thursday, November 22nd and a Merry Christmas on Tuesday, December 25th.

Ladies Of The Cloth!!!

As our homes grow toastier, our quilts feel cozier, and the crunchy leaves continue to float and whirr to the musty earth,.....let us recognize with grateful hearts the "bounty" we each have this Harvest Season! When we gather together at Thanksgiving and also for the Christmas Celebration, we should be so very thankful-----for the Lord has given us much in this Nation to be thankful for.....THE HARVEST OF PLENTY, and HIMSELF. When you spend time with your family or friends during these celebrations, ENJOY FULL.....LLLLLY!!!!!!! AND EAT TO BE FILLED!!!! Share in the excitement of the festivities whispering around the corner, knowing assuredly it is Christ who gives us each of these celebrations. He even willingly and obediently gave of Himself, as a babe, in human form, to reconcile Himself to us in a way that we, individually or corporately, could not attain.

May your joy be complete these HOLIDAY SEASONS!!!

HAPPY THANKSGIVING AND MERRY CHRISTMAS!!!

MANY BLESSINGS TO ALL OF YOU!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

(was that a snowflake??*???)

Quilter's Trio - Back to the 30's

What a blast!!! I sat at the Witch's table and it was cleverly decorated as always, Cindy Grover is so creativity!! All the witches had a good time, I know. The food was great, the quilts very cool and the tables awesome-really cute. I really enjoy seeing what the ladies can do with table decorations, it is not my thing, so I admire those who can that sort of thing. The auctioneer was great as usual. I want to give my thanks to the trio committee for giving me a good time and to the hard work all the special ladies did to make the event a success! The only thing that would this event better for me -- is if I won the opportunity quilt!!

Thank you!
Tara Batman

Dear Silver Needles Quilt Guild,

Thank you for the generous donation to the FACS department at South Middle School. Our students make flannel pants or shorts, or pillows depending on their sewing experience. Many students are not able to purchase fabric and I use your contribution to purchase fabric for those students.

Sincerely,
Daea Roberts

Dear Silver Needles Family,

Words cannot adequately express our family's gratitude for all of the love, prayers, and support that we have received during this difficult time of David's death. We are overwhelmed with the love and support we have received.

We wish God's blessings on each of you.

The Grover Family

Dear Silver Needles Quilt Guild,

Thank you so much for sponsoring the museum's Quilts of Valor workshop presentation on Thursday, October 11. This "History Comes Alive" event, with your support, brought the life story of 10's quilter and creative genius, Rose Kretsinger to life. Our educational programs enrich the lives of those in our community. On behalf of the Friends of the Smoky Hill Museum board, the staff and our many visitors and patrons, we thank you.

With warmest thanks,

William Pierson
