MISSION STATEMENT

The purpose of the Guild shall be to provide an avenue to enrich the community through quilt-making, to stimulate an interest in quilts, to promote and advance the art of quilt-making and related subjects, and to encourage the preservation of quilts and their history.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Judy Kohman

Dear Quilting Friends,

November is here, and it is time to stop and think about all of the things that we have to be thankful for. First of all, I'm thankful for the wonderful and successful Quilter's Trio that we had on October 20th. It was a really fun day. Sarah Stroede, Tara Wagner, and Cyndi Morris did a fabulous job of planning and organizing the event. Thanks to all of you that helped in any way. It takes everyone working together to make an event like this a success.

I'm also thankful for the wonderful programs that we have had this year. I'm looking forward to Clydene Sigle's program on "Paper Piecing and Techniques" at our November 19th meeting. Clydene is a Quilt in a Day Instructor. I look forward to seeing all of you then.

Happy Thanksgiving,
and Happy Quilting,

Judy Kohman

OCTOBER MINUTES

The meeting was called to order by Judy Kohman, President, at 7:00 p.m. on October 15, 2018.

Guests were introduced and October birthdays were acknowledged. Door prizes were won by Pam Jones, Karen Sutton, and Connie Ward.

Corrections to the September minutes were read by Judy Kohman. Refreshments served by Debbie Breer, Edna Richert, and Connie Ward; and Fair Quilt Show ribbons presented by Debbie Breer, Fran Swisher and Connie Ward. The minutes were approved as corrected and the treasurer's report will be filed for audit.

Judy reminded members that the deadline for the newsletter is the first Monday of the month; next month it will be November 5th.

Becky Mettlen has prepared a flyer for the sale of excess quilt racks. A list of what will be sold will be compiled after the Trio and attached to the flyer. It was decided to set a deadline for acceptance of bids of November 30, and also set a minimum bid.

Sarah Stroede reported on final details for the Trio. She also reported that all the available luncheon tickets had been sold. Judy said that volunteers were still needed in some areas, and asked for guild members to help out if they had time on Friday or Saturday.

Tara Wagner reported on next month's program. Clydene Sigle will present a program on paper-piecing.

Judy adjourned the meeting for Show and Tell.

The program by Carol and Ron Elmore on Ida Stover Eisenhower was presented before the meeting.

PJ Johnson
Secretary

Words will never be able to express how grateful Tara and I are for all the help we received at the Quilt Show this year. I had a blast even though my husband caused some excitement.

Judy Kohman's husband Jerry, my husband Gary (who tried but his friend Don had to do his work on Thursday), and Tom (a dear friend of the Kohmans and Stroedes) for loading, unloading, setting up and delivering the racks. My husband is having A Fib problems and had to go to the ER in the middle of setting up Thursday. Since Tom and Gary had to leave, Jerry and Don were left in the most capable hands of Karen Sutton to finish setting up. Jerry, you are a worker bee like I have never seen.

Karen Sutton you are amazing. Thank you so very much. This lady knew how the racks came together and where they went. Then Karly Burch showed up and those ladies were up and down the ladders all day. Andra Hancock thank you for all you did for the show. To all those who helped check-in, set-up, and help wherever, thank you so much. I will ask you to stand at the meeting, so I do not miss anyone.

Edna Richert and her granddaughters were at my table. However, those three girls were awesome. They served everyone, put all the stuff on the tables that needed to be there before we sat down, did the drawings for me, and stayed to clean up. Wow! They were running circles around me. Edna Richert, Wanda (my sister-in-law) and Jan (my friend) for helping in the kitchen and everywhere else we asked you to go.

Also, a very special thank you to Barb Shippy, Material Girls Quilting Shop in Abilene, Kansas, for her door prize donations. The Charm Packs, Jelly Rolls, and soaps were fabulous. Thank you to Janda Allred for donating quilt books that we also gave out as door prizes.

NOW!! The winner of the Opportunity Quilt was our very own CONNIE WARD!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Yeah! Congratulations!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
