MISSION STATEMENT

The purpose of the Guild shall be to provide an avenue to enrich the community through quilt making, to stimulate an interest in quilts, to promote and advance the art of quilt-making, to conduct educational programs and services in the design and techniques of quilt-making and related subjects and to encourage the preservation of quilts and their history.

GREETINGS FROM THE PRES,

A BIG BIG THANK YOU TO THE QUILTING BEE!!!

and thanks also to everyone that donated rippers for the ripper race. We collected way more than our goal of one hundred. Rippers will soon be distributed to Central High School and the 2 middle schools with some to keep in reserve for next semester. Andra Hancock calls rippers "a stitcher's best friend", so the kids should have plenty of best friends now.

MINUTES OF AUGUST MEETINGS

Silver Needles Quilt Guild August 19, 2013 Board Minutes

The Monthly board meeting was called to order by President Janda Allred at 5:50 pm. A list of members present was: Anita Wiechman, Andra Hancock, Ann Jordan, Leadell Ediger, Debbie Breer, Shawn Delker, Cindy Grover, Martha Oakes, Tara Batman, Roz Gugler, and Linda Tibbits.

New business

The board will start meeting at 6pm since they have been done early with board meetings. If there is a lot of items to discuss on the meeting agenda they may need to meet earlier and that will be decided by the President and an email sent out to board members.

Community Outreach: Discussed forming a committee to decide where to donate this year monies. Anita Wiechman and Tara Batman volunteered and a third person will be picked from the body of members at the evening meeting.

Trio: Ann Kinsler will make an announcement at the evening meeting. The trio would like to have a table to display the community quilts that have been donated by members so far this year at the luncheon. The trio asked Anita Wiechman to help write up quilt items labels that are hung for the luncheon. Ann has other things about luncheon to announce. Board discussed round tables versus rectangular tables. Either just have round tables or offer the few rectangular tables that are available to members on first come bases. There are 19 hostess signed up for tables so far.

Old Business

Treasurer: Nothing to discuss this month.

Newsletter: Turn items in by the first of the month to be included in the newsletter.

Community Service: So far this year there are 30 quilts that have been donated.

Trio Luncheon: Sign up sheet for auction items will be handed out for members to fill out when they turn in their donated items.

Quilt Guild Sewing Day: There was a good turnout for the sewing day at the church. Twenty -five members attended. It was discussed about having another one in Jan. or Feb.

Programs: Will announce next month mini challenge. Make an item for the Quilt Luncheon for donation.

Meeting adjourned @ 6:35 pm

Meeting

The meeting was called to order by President Janda Allred at 7:00 pm. Janda welcomed members and guests. New members were announced and welcomed. Door prizes were handed out. Winners were; Julie Rogge, Barb Walker, and Mary Lou Odle. Debbie Brightbill brought some item to give away to the meeting and they are on a table up front.

Community Service: Have batting here to take home for use on community projects. Announced that there are over 30 quilts so far this year that have been donated.

Minutes and Treasurers reports: Minutes for last month were approved and treasures reports were accepted and approved. Treasures report filed for audit.

Newsletter: Reviewed September 1st date to have items sent to Leadell for the newsletter.

Programs: Cindy Grover and Tara Batman announce the mini monthly challenge for September to the members. Make an item for Quilters Trio Luncheon.

Trio: Ann Kinsler announced tickets for the opportunity quilt were ready to be handed out. Asked members to please count their tickets to make sure they each had 30 tickets in their packets. Any one short or long to let the committee know and adjustments will be made. Asked each member bring at least one quilt to be hung up at the luncheon and to make sure there is a sleeve on the back of their quilts. Martha Oaks has sheets for members to fill out for donated items. Each hostess is responsible to clear up their own table and surroundings. There is no need for plates and silverware, but if members would like to bring their own they are welcome to. Members will need to have the monies for tickets collected and turned in by September 16, 2013 so that the trio can get the food ordered.

Show and Tell: This month had a lot of members for show and tell. There were three opportunity quilts shown and will sell tickets after the meeting for chances.

Misc: Mary Lou Odle announced that there were 175 rippers collected from the Quilting Bee and 61 at our meetings over the summer from members. These will be divided up and donated to the schools that have sewing programs.

Sewing day had 25 sewers show up and sew. There maybe another on in Jan/Feb if there is an interest by members.

Mini trunk show: This month's members were Ann Jordan and Jan Brax. Pam Mortensen and Debbie Brightbill will be the members featured next month.

Misc: Andra Hancock and the students that attended the MQS Quilt Show in Wichita had their picture in the magazine.

MONTHLY CHALLENGE

We are doing a year of Challenges and will be announcing a new mini challenge each month. The September Challenge will be items for the Auction at the Quilter Trio, which can be any type of project such as a mini, pillow, tea towels, furniture, etc. Remember to say this is your monthly challenge entry so we can put you in the drawing.

ANNUAL CHALLENGE

Don't forget to work on the challenge for the year due at February meeting. Our year-long Challenge is having to do with your own Birthstone/ Flower. Cindy Grover will have Fat Quarters (FQ) for you to pick up to help complete your project.. List of birthstones and flowers are on the bookmarks which can be picked up at the meeting. Any type of project can be done as long as you use your birthstone color and flower somewhere in the project.

TRIO LUNCHEON UPDATE

Date: October 19, 2013

Time: Door opens at 11:00 am, lunch at 12:00, auction to follow

Place: Redeemer Lutheran Church, 743 East Magnolia

Event will include: Quilt Show, Luncheon, Auction (to support Silver Needles Quilt Guild activities)

Opportunity Quilt: A lovely quilt titled "Lady Liberty" made by Silver Needles Quilt Guild members will be the Opportunity Quilt this year. Please sell as many tickets as you can! Money can be turned in any time before the luncheon. If you need more tickets please call Martha Oakes.

Table Hostesses: All hostesses need to turn in their table envelopes at the September meeting to Ann Jordan, Treasurer.

Auction: Members should be working on an auction item. These need to be turned in by October 5 to Martha Oakes so she will have time to get the auction sheet typed. Attached to newsletter is a description sheet that needs to be filled out and given to Martha along with the auction item. If more sheets are needed Martha will have some at the September meeting.

Just a reminder the October Guild meeting will be after the luncheon.

Quilt Show: Members are to be thinking of a quilt they would like to hang in the quilt show. Please bring a written description of the quilt to the September meeting. We would like each member to show a quilt. More information will be given about the time to drop off quilts and pickup.

Volunteers needed: Volunteers are needed to help sell opportunity tickets at the Quilting Bee during the quilt shop hop, October 4, 5 and 6th. Any time that a member can give would be appreciated.

Luncheon Set-Up: The Friday before the luncheon, October 18, the church will be open for hostesses to set their tables. Volunteers will be needed to help hang quilts for the quilt show and help do some decorating. Members will be informed about the time the church will be open.

Table Decoration Judging: This year, tables will be judge as part of the fun!
