They need quilts for an exhibit.. It will be secure. Members are asked to participate. Bill Weavers group will put up our quilt racks for the Trio on the Thursday night before we hang our quilts. They will then take down the quilt racks on Saturday afternoon after we remove our quilts. They will borrow our racks for their display. SNQG member, Jean Albright, is married to Kenneth and they have two children. Jean's favorite food is shrimp. She loves the colors of lavender and blue. Jean's favorite T.V. shows are Storage Wars and Pawn Shop. She began her life in Wisconsin and would one day like to visit Alaska. Someday Jean would like to learn how to do Bargello quilting. She enjoys doing things with groups, her family and grandchildren. Jean credits her mother as having the biggest influence on her quilting. She enjoys piecing quilt blocks, especially log cabins. Like all of us, Jean has way to many UFO's to count.

SNQG member, Barb Short, is married to Jerry. They have three daughters; Cindy, Kristy and Petey. Her favorite food is Mexican. Barb likes to swim and golf during the summer months. Her favorite colors are green and purple. Barb's favorite T.V. shows are: Grey's Anatomy, CSI, and Criminal Minds. Originally from Ohio, Barb would like to travel to Iceland where she has visited previously. Machine quilting is a favorite as well as Irish Chain blocks.

This is the sheet that needs to be filled out for the guild auction. Please attach the filled out sheet to your auction item. You may bring your item to me at anytime. I will have extra sheets with me at guild meetings. Please turn your items in before the day of the auction/luncheon so that I can have time to get the description sheet made up. It's easier on the people working the auction to have items earlier than on the day of the auction. Thank you,
Shawn

DON'T MISS OUR SEPTEMBER MEETING:

Linda Jones, Newton, will present a program all about buttons. She'll cover the history and uses of buttons. If you've ever wanted to know more about the care and feeding of your buttons, this meeting is for you. Do you have a button collection? Bring it with you to show and tell.

LITTLE STITCHES Aneela Hoy

I love embroidery. If you've read my reviews before, you know that's true. If you love embroidery as much as I do, you will love this book. Aneela Hoey has taken the intimidation factor out of the art of embroidery.

She covers everything from the tools you'll use, to how to transfer the patterns, the stitches and how to use them, as well as how to do specialty stitches, and how to care for your embroidery once you've finished stitching the designs.

The designs are quite unique. They are delicate and full of color. These are designs will have you taking a trip back in time to coloring books, paper dolls, and long summer afternoons creating art as you play. The designs are irresistible. Ms. Hoey gives you ideas for quick projects that you can make with your designs.

So if you have always wanted to embroider, were not quite sure how to transfer the designs, a bit intimidated by the stitches and not sure what to do with the embroidery when you're done with it? This book covers all that and more. I know I'll refer to this book again and again as I keep on stitching.

LETTERS HOME

One student fell into a cycle of classes, studying, working and sleeping. He didn't realize how long he had neglected writing home until he received the following note:

Dear Son,
Your mother and I enjoyed your last letter. Of course, we were much younger then, and more impressionable.
Love, Dad.
