SEPTEMBER PROGRAM - Lynne Hagmeier, Kansas Troubles Quilters

Every guild member has undoubtedly made quilted projects with fabric from Kansas Troubles. Lynne Hagmeier has created hundreds of quilting patterns, published two dozen book (five in a series of historical quilts as well as quilters journals) and designed over 50 collections of fabric for Moda. Her fabric designs and colorways are timeless, affording a sense of Kansas life on the prairie. She is a much sought-after speaker and program presenter. We are thrilled that she could join us for a program and truck show.

Silver Needles Quilt Guild Meeting Minutes - 07/15/19

Silver Needles Quilt Guild Meeting – 08/19/19

The meeting was called to order by Cyndi Morris, President, at 7:00 PM on August 19, 2019.

Guests were introduced and August birthdays acknowledged.

Birthday cake in honor of Becky Mettlen was provided by her sister Deb.

Door prizes were won by Jean Hamilton, Beckie Davis, Barb Walker and Rosie Collins.

The minutes from the July newsletter were approved as printed, and the treasurer's report will be filed for audit.

Jody Britt has kits for community service quilts available, also batting. The next 3rd Thursday for sewing at the church will be September 19th.

Dorothy Boyle reported on the Trio, which is October 12. Sign-up sheets for helping are available tonight and luncheon tickets will be available next month. Luncheon tickets are $12, raffle tickets for the opportunity quilt are $1, and tickets for the quilt show only are $2. Cyndi Morris encouraged everyone to support the Trio by donating an item for the auction or purchasing something as this is our only fund-raiser of the year.

Conee Brown has new membership lists available. Martha Oakes has material donated from the hospital to make bags for Earth Day next year. See her if you are interested – she says the pattern is very simple. Thanks to Loretta Jilka for publicity for the meeting. Shirley Andrews reported on scheduled August retreat at Sew Cozy in Wakefield.

Next month's program will be presented by Lynne Hagmeier of Kansas Troubles Quilters.

The meeting was adjourned for show-and-tell and the program presented by Toni Steere of Timeless Treasures.

NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Labor Day has passed, signaling that fall is just around the corner. This will bring cooler days, Halloween, quilt weather, Silver Needles Quilt Guild annual TRIO, and oh so many things we all love about this time of year.

Our TRIO celebration is quickly approaching. There are plenty of opportunities for each of us to become involved. If you are planning to attend and need a place to sit be sure to let the committee know. My years of teaching middle school always cause me to think of the girls left out from sitting with the "cool kids" simply because they were never asked and lacked the assertiveness to ask to sit with them. While those years are far behind us, the feeling of being needed, wanted, and included remain. Let's make sure all are included.

When I think of fall quilting, I always think of the marvelous muted colors---just the ones so popular with Kansas Troubles Quilters. This month I am so excited to finally hear Lynne Hagmeier. Such a treasure right here in our midst! Being relatively new to the Salina area, this will be my first experience with a Kansas Troubles presentation and I am anxiously looking forward to it.

Cyndi

News from another Quilt Guild:

Dear Kansas Quilt Enthusiasts:

Mark your calendars! The Kansas Capital Quilters Guild (KCQG) is excited to host the 2019 "Quilting with the Stars" quilt show in Topeka on Sept. 21 and 22.

We hope you can attend and have attached a flyer with more details. Our show is scheduled to take place in Topeka from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 21, and from Noon to 5 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 22. The event will be at the Woman's Club, 5221 SW West Drive in Topeka.

The easiest way to get to the quilt show is to take I-70 into Topeka, then take exit 357A (Fairlawn Road) south about four blocks. The Woman's Club is just south of the skating rink and is wheelchair accessible.

As the flyer says, Carol Bragdon is our featured quilter - she'll have several quilts in our show of the more than 150 quilts that will be exhibited. There's also a silent auction, a boutique, vendors and a certified quilt appraiser will be available.

There are numerous wonderful quilters across the state and we are proud to have so many of them in the Topeka area who we think are out of this world when it comes to talent. Don't miss out on a great display of beautiful quilts!

We have information on the KCQG website at www.kscapitalquilters.com. If you have any questions, please feel free to email us at kscapitalquiltersguild@gmail.com.
